

The Bloomington Human Rights Commission and the League of Women Voters will host

Join us for a screening and panel discussion Tuesday, February 2, 7 p.m.
(refreshments and registration 6:30 p.m.) at Bloomington Civic Plaza
1800 W. Old Shakopee Rd., Bloomington, MN 55431

This film tells the story of the courageous students, teachers and activists who led the nonviolent fight to win voting rights for African Americans in the South - one of the most significant victories in the civil rights era. The program will recognize the barriers that were overcome by the brave young people who marched from Selma to Montgomery, and those who continue to advocate for removing barriers and equal voting rights today.

This event is FREE and open to the public. Reservations requested.
